Financial Advisor Jim Gilley with US Capital was present and discussed with the City Council the outcome of the advertisement of bids for taxable notes. Due to the timing of the water plant incident and the timely payment of those expenses, the only option for the City in seeking a bond was to go with taxable option. The non-taxable option would have had to occur within 60 days of the incurring of the expense. Mr. Gilley prepared and advertised for bids on the notes and they received one bid from BB&T. The request was for $545,000 plus interest and closing. It is offered as a 7 year note at 2.6330% calculated TIC.
